FORWARDING

I am delighted to observe the updated curriculum of the Department of Arts for BA English literature Program, which seamlessly integrates the most recent trends and corporate affairs in the field of Social Science and adheres to the guidelines set forth by UGC and HED. The revised curriculum also thoughtfully incorporates the directives of NEP-2020.

The alignment of course outcomes (COs), program Outcome (POs) and Program specific outcomes (PSOs) has been intricately executed, aligning perfectly with the requisites of NEP-2020 and NAAC standards. I hold the belief that this revised syllabus will significantly enhance the skills and employability of our students.

With immense satisfaction, I hereby present the revised curriculum for the BA English literature program for implementation in the upcoming session.

FROM THE DESK OF THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

AKS University is currently undergoing a process to revamp its curriculum into an outcome-based approach, with the aim of enhancing the teaching and learning process. The foundation of quality of quality education lies in the implementation of a curriculum that aligns with both societal and industrial needs, focusing on relevant outcomes. This entails dedicated and inspired

Faculty members, as well as impactful industry internships

The curriculum goes beyond theoretical learning and embraces practical applications. To enhance students' skills, the curriculum integrates industrial visits, and On-Job Training experiences, research projects. This well-rounded approach ensures that students receive a comprehensive education, fostering their skill development and preparing them for success in the field of Social Science.

The study of English Literature holds a unique and vital place in the academic landscape. It is through your tireless efforts that our students gain not only an education but also a deeper understanding of the human condition, cultural diversity, and the power of language. You are the architects of an intellectual journey that shapes their perspectives, hones their analytical abilities, and nurtures their creative expression.

Your role as educators in this field is both impactful and far-reaching. By guiding students through the works of literary giants and exposing them to various critical theories, you are equipping them with the tools to engage thoughtfully with the world around them. The ability to analyse, interpret, and critique literary texts fosters skills that are transferable beyond the classroom and into every aspect of life, including leadership, communication, and ethical decision-making.

I encourage you to continue exploring innovative teaching methods, interdisciplinary approaches, and collaborative opportunities that can further enrich the learning experiences of our students. Your influence extends beyond the transmission of knowledge; it inspires a lifelong love for literature and learning.

As we move forward, let us work together to ensure that our BA in English Literature program remains a beacon of academic excellence. Your contributions are invaluable in maintaining the high standards of our institution and in preparing our students to make meaningful contributions to society.

I am confident that the updated curriculum for Department of Arts will not only enhance students' skills and also contribute significantly to their employability. During the process of revising the curriculum, I am pleased to observe that the Department of Arts has diligently adhered to the guidelines provided by the UGC and HED. Additionally, they have maintained a total credit requirement of 160 for the BA English literature program.

AKS University warmly invites input and suggestions from industry experts and technocrats and Alumni students to enhance the curriculum and make it more student-centric. Your valuable insights will greatly contribute to shaping an education that best serves the needs and aspirations of our students.

PREFACE

As part of our commitment to ongoing enhancement, the Department of Arts consistently reviews and updates its BA English literature program curriculum every three years. Through this process, we ensure that the curriculum remains aligned with the latest social change and developments, as well as local and global industrial and social demands.

During this procedure, the existing curriculum for the BA English literature Program undergoes evaluation by a panel of industry specialists, and academicians. Following meticulous scrutiny, the revised curriculum has been formulated and is set to be implemented starting from August 01, 2023. This implementation is contingent upon the endorsement of the curriculum by the University's Board of Studies and Governing Body.

This curriculum closely adheres to the HED model syllabus distributed in May 2023. It seamlessly integrates the guidelines set forth by the Ministry of Higher Education, Government of India, through NEP- 2020, as well as the principles of Sustainable Development Goals. In order to foster the holistic skill development of students, a range of practical activities, including Industrial Visits, Project planning and execution, Report Writing, Seminars, and Industrial On-Job Training, have been incorporated. Furthermore, in alignment with HED directives, the total credit allocation for the BA English literature program is capped at 160 credits.

For each course, a thorough mapping of Course Outcomes, Program Outcomes, and Program Specific Outcomes has been undertaken. As the course syllabus is being meticulously developed, various elements such as session outcomes, laboratory instruction, classroom instruction, self-learning activities, assignments, and mini projects are meticulously outlined.

We hold the belief that this dynamic curriculum will undoubtedly enhance independent thinking, skills, and overall employability of the students.

Semester-I

Course Code:	0SDG01
Course Title:	Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
Pre-requisite:	Student should have basic knowledge of Environment, Natural resources, Climate change and sustainability
Rationale:	To inculcate the knowledge base on sustainable development with a view to balance our economic, environmental and social needs, allowing prosperity for now and future generations. To train students to undertake major initiatives in the efficient management of natural resources and the prevention of environmental pollution with focus on Sustainable Development. To use environmental management tools that help to improve the quality of environment, to assess local vulnerabilities with respect to climate, natural disasters and to achieve sustainable developmental needs.

Course Outcomes:

0SDG01.1: Examine critically the 17 newly minted UN Sustainable Development Goals and understand the historical evolution, key theories, and concepts of sustainable development.

0SDG01.2: Identify and apply methods for assessing the achievement of sustainable development and discover the science, technology, economics, and politics underlying the concepts of sustainability.

0SDG01.3: Understand the implications of overuse of resources, population growth and economic growth and sustainability and explore the challenges the society faces in making transition to renewable resource use.

0SDG01.4: Develop skills to understand attitudes on individuals, society and their role regarding causes and solutions in the field of sustainable development and apply critical thinking skills to evaluate the quality, credibility and limitations of an argument for solution.

0SDG01.5: Describe the steps of the design thinking methodology and how design thinking can accelerate effective SDG implementation. Deepen knowledge and pedagogical tools to incorporate values-based education for sustainable development in educational programmes and processes.

Curriculum of BA/ BA (Hon's) Program (Revised as on 01 August 2023)

Course Code:	1CA101
Course Title :	Data Processing Software
Pre-requisite:	Student should have basic knowledge of computer such as Input devices, central processing unit and output devices. Student should aware of how to power on computer and how to shut down computer.
Rationale:	The subject of Data processing software much like the suite of tools offered by Microsoft Office, is an indispensable resource in today's digital era. Just as Microsoft Office applications streamline and enhance productivity in various office tasks, this subject empowers individuals and organizations to make informed decisions about their computing resources, resulting in increased productivity and cost-efficiency. Much like Word helps craft documents, Excel crunches numbers, and PowerPoint delivers impactful presentations, our subject equips students with the knowledge and skills needed to navigate the dynamic world of personal computing. It's a bit like having the right software for the job, where understanding the right PC package configuration and customization is key to achieving desired outcomes.

Course Outcomes:

CO 1: Acquire the knowledge of the fundamentals and features of MS Windows, including various versions, screen elements, dialog boxes, and toolbars. CO 2: Acquire the basic and advanced knowledge of MS word and word processing.

CO 3: Acquire the basic and advanced knowledge of MS Access and data base system.

CO 5: Acquire the basic and advanced knowledge of Making Power Point Presentation Using MS PowerPoint.

Semester-II

Course Code:	0EVS03
Course Title :	Environmental Studies
Pre-requisite:	To study this course, the student must have a knowledge about the environmental components, pollution, biodiversity, and Ecosystem at senior secondary, Class 12'h level
Rationale:	The students studying Environmental Science should possess foundational understanding about environment and its components. They should also know the importance of ecosystems in our surroundings.

Course Outcomes:

0EVS03.1: Understand and evaluate the global scale of environmental problem.

0EVS03.2: To outline the resources, ecosystem, and diversity and explain the conservation and its significations.

0EVS03.3: To identify the environmental issues, types of pollutions and their impact.

0EVS03.4: Develop critical thinking for shaping strategies

0EVS03.5: For environmental protection, social equity and sustainable development Scheme

Course Title : Study of Drama

Pre- requisite: Study of drama is a basic understanding of literary elements and techniques, such as plot, character, setting, and theme.

Rationale: The study of drama enhances understanding of human behavior and societal issues through the exploration of diverse characters and narratives.

Course Outcomes:

01EN201.1. Critically analyze and interpret the themes of fate and free will in Sophocles' "Oedipus Rex," demonstrating an understanding of how these concepts influence the narrative and the characters' actions within the play.

01EN201.2. Analyze the themes of knowledge, power, and the supernatural in Christopher Marlowe's "Dr. Faustus," understanding how these elements reflect the historical and cultural context of the Renaissance period.

01EN201.3. Examine the historical and cultural context of "Dr. Faustus," understanding how the Renaissance period's intellectual and religious conflicts influenced the play's themes and characters.

01EN201.4. Critically analyze the themes of identity and incompleteness in Girish Karnad's "Hayavadana" within the cultural and mythological context of Indian theatre.

Course Title : MICRO ECONOMICS

Pre- This course can be opted by any student who has passed 12 class .Student should requisite: have basic knowledge of History ,politics ,society and economics.

Rationale: After completing this course, students will be able to understand rational behaviour and fundamentals of microeconomics. They will be able to explain consumer's and producer's behaviour and their optimum decisions. Students will be able to know about the firms and industry. They will be also able to explain the theory of distribution.

Students will be able to know about the firms and industry, markets and their decisions about optimum production. They will be also able to explain they theory of distribution and concept of economic welfare.

Course Outcomes:

The students will learn to;

CO.2: TO explain ordinal and cardinal approach ,law of demand and elasticity of demand CO

3: To explain law of variable proportion , concept of revenue and cost.

CO 4 They will able to know about market and price determination.

CO 5- They will also able to know factor pricing and concept of welfare economics

Course Title: PROGRAMMING IN C LANGUAGE

Pre-requisite: Student should have basic understanding of Fundamental of Computer. This course is based on programming so the students must have the basic knowledge of computers and its basic operations.

Rationale:

Importance of C programming and its practical applications C programming language holds immense importance in the software development industry. Its simplicity, efficiency, and versatility make it a powerful tool for developing a wide range of applications. From operating systems to embedded systems, C finds its use in numerous domains.

Course Outcome:

CO2: Students will use data types, variables, formatted and unformatted function and decision and looping control statement in program.

CO3: Student will learn the function and array in the program.

The program also empowers the graduates to appear for various competitive examinations or choose the post graduate programme or their own. The B.A. program enables the students to acquire the knowledge with human values framing the base to wear with various problems in the world. The students will be ignited enough to think and act over for the solution of various issues prevailed in the human life to make this world better than ever. Programme provides the base to be the responsible citizen.							Environment and sustainability		Ethics	Individual and team work	Communication	Project management and finance	Life-long learning	. Students will understand the concepts GNP, NNP, GDP, NDP, PCI, Disposable Income. Students will understand various aspects and features of Indian economy. Student will know about Consumer's behavior, Demand analysis, cardinal and ordinal utility. It may also provide the information to the student for elasticity of demand, price, income and cross	Students can work efficiently in the field of banking, finance, industry, farming, consumer rights, production, research and trade

Semester-III

Course Code: 1CA301

Course Title : Data Base Management System

Pre-requisite: Student should know basic knowledge of handling the records in Database for software development.

Rationale:

'It's all about the Data!'

Database is a kind of tools to make real life financial decisions in a constantly changing and uncertain world and enhances financial literacy

Course Outcomes:

CO.1: Learn the basics of databases and data management.

CO.2: Understand various theoretical and practical principles involved in the design and use of databases systems with the help of database.

CO.4: Design and implement databases for various scenarios.

Course-Curriculum Detailing:

This course Curriculum illustrates the expected learning achievements, both at the course and session levels, which students are anticipated to accomplish through various modes of instruction including Classroom Instruction (CI), Laboratory Instruction (LI), Sessional Work (SW), and Self Learning (SL). As the course progresses, students should showcase their mastery of Session Outcomes (SOs), culminating in the overall achievement of Course Outcomes (COs) upon the course's conclusion.

CO.1: Learn the basics of databases and data management.

Course-Curriculum Detailing:

This course curriculum illustrates the expected learning achievements, both at the course and session levels, which students are anticipated to accomplish through various modes of instruction including Classroom Instruction (CI), Laboratory Instruction (LI), Sessional Work (SW), and Self Learning (SL). As the course progresses, students should showcase their mastery of Session Outcomes (SOs), culminating in the overall achievement of Course Outcomes (COs) upon the course's conclusion.

Course Detailing:

During 5th Semester students will undergo a Field Project of 45 days in industries and markets. The 45-day field project in the BA program offers students a practical and immersive learning experience aimed at bridging academic knowledge with real-world applications. Through this project, students have the opportunity to engage directly with industry practices, apply theoretical concepts in practical settings, and develop essential skills crucial for their professional development. Under the guidance of experienced mentors and faculty advisors, students undertake meaningful projects, conduct research, analyze data, and propose solutions to challenges in the field of Social Science, thereby gaining valuable insights into organizational dynamics and operational strategies. This hands-on experience not only enhances their academic learning but also prepares them to effectively navigate complexities in their future careers, fostering critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership capabilities essential in today's competitive business environment.

Guideline for Making a Field Project Report:

- 1. Cover Page: Include the title of your report, your name, Field Project start and end dates, name of your university, department, and the name of the organization where you completed the Field Project.
- 2. Table of Contents: List all the main sections and subsections of your report with corresponding page numbers for easy navigation.

3. Executive Summary: Provide a brief overview of your Field Project experience, including the organization's background, your roles and responsibilities, major projects or tasks undertaken, key achievements, and a summary of your overall learning outcomes.

4. Introduction: Introduce the purpose of the Field Project report, your objectives for the Field Project, and the methodology used (if applicable, e.g., research methods, data collection techniques).

5. Organization Overview: Describe the organization where you completed your Field Project, including its history, mission, organizational structure, products/services offered, target market, and any other relevant details.

6. Field Project Experience:

- Roles and Responsibilities: Detail your specific roles, responsibilities, and projects/tasks assigned during the Field Project.
- Skills Developed: Discuss the skills you gained or improved upon during the Field Project (e.g., technical skills, soft skills, industry-specific knowledge).
- Challenges Faced: Describe any challenges or obstacles encountered during your Field Project and how you addressed them.
- Achievements: Highlight notable achievements, contributions, or projects completed during your Field Project, emphasizing the impact of your work on the organization.

7. Learning Outcomes: Reflect on your learning outcomes and personal development during the Field Project. Discuss how the experience contributed to your academic and career goals.

8. Analysis and Evaluation: Analyze the strengths and weaknesses of the organization's operations or processes you observed during the Field Project. Provide constructive feedback or recommendations for improvement.

9. Conclusion: Summarize the key points of your Field Project experience, reiterate the significance of your contributions, and reflect on the overall value of the Field Project towards your professional development.

10. Recommendations (if applicable): Provide recommendations for the organization based on your observations and experiences during the Field Project.

11. References/Bibliography: Include any sources referenced or cited throughout your Field Project report using appropriate citation style (e.g., APA, MLA).

12. Appendices: Include any supplementary materials such as project reports, presentations, certificates of completion, or any other relevant documents that support your Field Project experience.

Course Code:	06EN651 Department Arts Curriculum of BA Computer Program
Course Title :	Field Project / Internship (Revised for the August 2023)
Rationale:	Field projects are integral to BA programs, providing students with a comprehensive learning experience that bridges academic knowledge and practical application. By undertaking field projects, students enhance their research skills, gain professional experience, improve their employability, and contribute to their personal and academic growth.

Semester-VI Course Outcomes:

06EN651.1: Apply academic knowledge to real-world business tasks and challenges.

06EN651.2: Demonstrate the ability to analyse and propose solutions to business problems.

06EN651.3: Display professional behaviour and ethical decision-making in a business setting.

06EN651.4: Communicate subject information clearly and effectively in both written and oral forms.

06EN651.5: Collaborate with team members to achieve social , political objectives.

Scheme of Assessment:

Course Detailing:

During 6th Semester students will undergo a Field Project of 45 days in industries and markets. The 45-day field project in the BA program offers students a practical and immersive learning experience aimed at bridging academic knowledge with real-world applications. Through this project, students have the opportunity to engage directly with industry practices, apply theoretical concepts in practical settings, and develop essential skills crucial for their professional development. Under the guidance of experienced mentors and faculty advisors, students undertake meaningful projects, conduct research, analyze data, and propose solutions to challenges in the field of Social Science, thereby gaining valuable insights into organizational dynamics and operational strategies. This hands-on experience not only enhances their academic learning but also prepares them to effectively navigate complexities in their future careers, fostering critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership capabilities essential in today's competitive business environment.

Guideline for Making a Field Project Report:

- Cover Page: Include the title of your report, your name, Field Project start and end dates, name of your university, department, and the name of the organization where you completed the Field Project.
- Table of Contents: List all the main sections and subsections of your report with corresponding page numbers for easy navigation.
- Executive Summary: Provide a brief overview of your Field Project experience, including the organization's background, your roles and responsibilities, major projects or tasks undertaken, key achievements, and a summary of your overall learning outcomes.
- Introduction: Introduce the purpose of the Field Project report, your objectives for the Field Project, and the methodology used (if applicable, e.g., research methods, data collection techniques).
- Organization Overview: Describe the organization where you completed your Field Project, including its history, mission, organizational structure, products/services offered, target market, and any other relevant details.
- Field Project Experience:
 - Roles and Responsibilities: Detail your specific roles, responsibilities, and projects/tasks assigned during the Field Project.

- Skills Developed: Discuss the skills you gained or improved upon during the Field Project (e.g., technical skills, soft skills, industry-specific knowledge).
- Challenges Faced: Describe any challenges or obstacles encountered during your Field Project and how you addressed them.
- Achievements: Highlight notable achievements, contributions, or projects completed during your Field Project, emphasizing the impact of your work on the organization.

7. Learning Outcomes: Reflect on your learning outcomes and personal development during the Field Project. Discuss how the experience contributed to your academic and career goals.

8. Analysis and Evaluation: Analyze the strengths and weaknesses of the organization's operations or processes you observed during the Field Project. Provide constructive feedback or recommendations for improvement.

9. Conclusion: Summarize the key points of your Field Project experience, reiterate the significance of your contributions, and reflect on the overall value of the Field Project towards your professional development.

10. Recommendations (if applicable): Provide recommendations for the organization based on your observations and experiences during the Field Project.

11. References/Bibliography: Include any sources referenced or cited throughout your Field Project report using appropriate citation style (e.g., APA, MLA).

12. Appendices: Include any supplementary materials such as project reports, presentations, certificates of completion, or any other relevant documents that support your Field Project experience.

Course Detailing:

During 7th Semester students will undergo a Field Project of 45 days in industries and markets. The 45-day field project in the BA program offers students a practical and immersive learning experience aimed at bridging academic knowledge with real-world applications. Through this project, students have the opportunity to engage directly with industry practices, apply theoretical concepts in practical settings, and develop essential skills crucial for their professional development. Under the guidance of experienced mentors and faculty advisors, students undertake meaningful projects, conduct research, analyze data, and propose solutions to challenges in the field of Social Science, thereby gaining valuable insights into organizational dynamics and operational strategies. This hands-on experience not only enhances their academic learning but also prepares them to effectively navigate complexities in their future careers, fostering critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership capabilities essential in today's competitive business environment.

Guideline for Making a Field Project Report:

Course Code:	06EN851
Course Title :	Major Project
Rationale:	Minor projects/field project are integral to BA programs, providing students with a comprehensive learning experience that bridges academic knowledge and practical application. By undertaking field projects, students enhance their research skills, gain professional experience, improve their employability, and contribute to their personal and academic growth.

Course Outcomes:

- 1: Apply academic knowledge to real-world business tasks and challenges.
- .2: Demonstrate the ability to analyse and propose solutions to business problems.
- 3: Display professional behaviour and ethical decision-making in a business setting.
- .4: Communicate subject information clearly and effectively in both written and oral forms.
- 5: Collaborate with team members to achieve social , political objectives.

Course Detailing:

During 8th Semester students will undergo a Field Project of 45 days in industries and markets. The 45-day field project in the BA program offers students a practical and immersive learning experience aimed at bridging academic knowledge with real-world applications. Through this project, students have the opportunity to engage directly with industry practices, apply theoretical concepts in practical settings, and develop essential skills crucial for their professional development. Under the guidance of experienced mentors and faculty advisors, students undertake meaningful projects, conduct research, analyze data, and propose solutions to challenges in the field of Social Science, thereby gaining valuable insights into organizational dynamics and operational strategies. This hands-on experience not only enhances their academic learning but also prepares them to effectively navigate complexities in their future careers, fostering critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership capabilities essential in today's competitive business environment.

Guideline for Making a Field Project Report:

- 1. Cover Page: Include the title of your report, your name, Field Project start and end dates, name of your university, department, and the name of the organization where you completed the Field Project.
- 2. Table of Contents: List all the main sections and subsections of your report with corresponding page numbers for easy navigation.
- 3. Executive Summary: Provide a brief overview of your Field Project experience, including the organization's background, your roles and responsibilities, major projects or tasks undertaken, key achievements, and a summary of your overall learning outcomes.
- 4. Introduction: Introduce the purpose of the Field Project report, your objectives for the Field Project, and the methodology used (if applicable, e.g., research methods, data collection techniques).
- 5. Organization Overview: Describe the organization where you completed your Field Project, including its history, mission, organizational structure, products/services offered, target market, and any other relevant details.
- 6. Field Project Experience:
 - Roles and Responsibilities: Detail your specific roles, responsibilities, and projects/tasks assigned during the Field Project.
 - Skills Developed: Discuss the skills you gained or improved upon during the Field Project (e.g., technical skills, soft skills, industry-specific knowledge).
 - Challenges Faced: Describe any challenges or obstacles encountered during your Field Project and how you addressed them.
 - Achievements: Highlight notable achievements, contributions, or projects completed during your Field Project, emphasizing the impact of your work on the organization.
- 7. Learning Outcomes: Reflect on your learning outcomes and personal development during the Field Project. Discuss how the experience contributed to your academic and career goals.
- 8. Analysis and Evaluation: Analyze the strengths and weaknesses of the organization's operations or processes you observed during the Field Project. Provide constructive feedback or recommendations for improvement.
