1.0    Vice Chancellor's Opening Address (Chairman of IQAC)

Welcome, esteemed colleagues. As we navigate the unprecedented challenges of the COVID-19 era, AKS University remains steadfast in its commitment to academic excellence. Our teaching and learning strategy has been meticulously adapted to ensure continuity and resilience. We've embraced innovative digital platforms to facilitate uninterrupted learning and fostered a supportive environment for our students and faculty. Looking ahead, our roadmap includes enhancing virtual engagement, refining online curricula, and preparing for a seamless transition back to in-person experiences. Together, we will emerge stronger, upholding the integrity of our educational mission.

2.0    Review and Confirmation of the Minutes from the Previous IQAC Meeting (Dated 19/4)

As there were no further comments, the minutes of the IQAC meeting 23-1 were confirmed and distributed. The floor was then opened for discussion.

3.0    Action Taken Report: Presentation by the IQAC Director on Outcomes from the Previous Meeting

The IQAC Director reported on the actions taken on the previous meeting, and the Vice Chancellor expressed satisfaction with the progress made.

4.0    Teaching and Learning Strategy: Presentation by the Head of Department (HoD) on Planning

A presentation by the Head of Department (HoD) on planning is a strategic approach to teaching and learning. It involves the HoD outlining the department's objectives, curriculum design, resource allocation, and assessment methods. This strategy ensures that all faculty members are aligned with the department's educational goals and understand their roles in achieving them. It promotes a cohesive and collaborative environment, fostering an atmosphere conducive to learning. By presenting a clear plan, the HoD sets expectations, encourages proactive engagement, and provides a roadmap for both teachers and students to follow, leading to improved educational outcomes. Such presentations are vital for transparency and accountability in educational institutions.

5.0    Uninterrupted Academic Process: Deliberation by the Pro Chancellor on Future Strategies for Teaching and Learning

The Pro Chancellor emphasized the importance of an uninterrupted academic process during the COVID period. Recognizing the challenges posed by the pandemic, the university adopted innovative strategies to ensure continuity in education. The Pro Chancellor outlined a multi-pronged approach focusing on digital infrastructure enhancement, faculty training for online teaching, and developing a flexible curriculum that accommodates remote learning. Emphasis was placed on mental health support for students and staff, ensuring a supportive learning environment. The university's swift transition to virtual platforms exemplified its commitment to academic excellence and adaptability. By prioritizing student engagement and leveraging technology, the Pro Chancellor's deliberation set a precedent for future-proofing education against unforeseen disruptions, ensuring that learning never stops, even in the face of global challenges.

6.0    Academic Roadmap: Vice Chancellor's Discussion on Future Teaching and Learning Initiatives

To continue the Academic activities in the University during the COVID lockdown, the Vice Chancellor of the university presented a concise academic roadmap, focusing on future teaching and learning initiatives. The plan included a shift to robust online platforms, ensuring uninterrupted education. The VC advocated for a blended learning model, combining online and, when possible, in-person sessions to maintain educational standards. Investment in technology and training for faculty was prioritized to facilitate this transition. The roadmap also highlighted the need for flexible course structures to accommodate the diverse needs of students, ensuring that every individual could continue their education without hindrance during the pandemic.
