2. OPENING REMARK BY THE VICE-CHANCELLOR, CHAIRMAN IQAC

The Vice chancellor extend a warm welcome to the members to this crucial meeting of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). He told that we are gathered to deliberate on several pivotal aspects concerning our academic calendar, student satisfaction, and institutional readiness for the forthcoming academic session.

Our agenda includes discussions on the meticulous preparation of the departmental academic calendar, ensuring its alignment with our educational objectives and the mandates of NEP 2020. We'll also review the outcomes of the recent student satisfaction survey, pivotal for enhancing our educational delivery.

Furthermore, I anticipate insightful deliberations on the forthcoming International Workshop on Research Methodology hosted by the Management Department, alongside the integration of value-added courses into our curriculum. Additionally, we shall spotlight the commendable extension activities undertaken by our students, underscoring our commitment to holistic education.

Let us engage in constructive dialogue, aiming to fortify our academic ecosystem and uphold the ideals of excellence and innovation at AKS University.

4. REPORTING OF ACTION TAKEN REPORT BY DIRECTOR IQAC

The Director of IQAC presented a comprehensive report on the actions taken regarding the recommendations from the previous IQAC meeting. The Vice-Chancellor expressed contentment with the proactive measures implemented by the various departments in response to these recommendations.

5. DISCUSSION ON PRESENT STATUS OF THE DEPARTMENTAL ACADEMIC CALENDAR AND READINESS FOR THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE ACADEMIC SESSION.

The Heads of Departments provided an update on the current status of the departmental academic calendar and readiness for the upcoming academic session. They reported meticulous planning and alignment of schedules with curriculum objectives. Assurance was given regarding faculty preparedness, infrastructure readiness, and administrative support. Any pending adjustments were highlighted, along with proactive measures to address them swiftly. Overall, the report reflected a high level of preparedness and commitment to ensuring a seamless commencement of the academic session.

6. REPORT ON STUDENT SATISFACTION SURVEY

The Heads of Departments informed about the online student satisfaction survey conducted via Google Forms. They conveyed that the survey data has been submitted to the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) for thorough evaluation and subsequent report preparation.

7. REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON RESEARCH METHODOLOGY ORGANISED BY MANAGEMENT DEPARTMENT DURING 18 APRIL – 22 APRIL 2022.

Dr. Kausik Mukherjee, Head of the Department of Management Studies, shared that their department effectively orchestrated an International Seminar on Research Methodology in April 2022, yielding tremendous success. Approximately 50 international and 500 national delegates including students participated in this esteemed event. Distinguished scientists and academics delivered enlightening lectures, greatly benefiting both students and faculty members.

8. PRESENTATION OF HOD ON CONDUCTION OF VALUE ADDED COURSES DURING THE ACADEMIC SESSION

The Heads of Departments provided insights on the execution of value-added courses during the ongoing academic session. They emphasized the strategic integration of these courses to enrich the learning experience and augment skill development among students. The report highlighted the diverse range of value-added courses offered across departments, tailored to meet industry demands and emerging trends. Additionally, the Heads detailed the methodologies adopted for course delivery, including guest lectures, workshops, and hands-on training sessions. Feedback mechanisms were underscored, ensuring continuous improvement and relevance of the courses. Moreover, the alignment of these courses with the objectives of the National Education Policy 2020 was emphasized, fostering holistic education and employability enhancement. Overall, the report reflected a concerted effort to enhance the academic landscape and equip students with the requisite competencies for success in their respective fields.
