2. OPENING REMARK BY THE VICE-CHANCELLOR, CHAIRMAN IQAC

I am delighted to welcome you all to focused on shaping the academic landscape of our esteemed institution for the upcoming session.

Today, we embark on a journey to enhance our curriculum design, further the development of our faculty, refine our Co-Po mapping strategies, and establish a robust academic calendar for the next session and hosting of 36 Central Zone Inter University Youth festival at AKS University during 6-10 January are main agenda item to discuss.

Our curriculum is the cornerstone of our educational endeavors, and its design must be innovative, relevant, and responsive to the ever-evolving needs of our students and society. Through collaborative efforts, we aim to create a curriculum that not only equips our students with academic knowledge but also nurtures critical thinking, creativity, and adaptability.

Faculty development is paramount in ensuring that our educators remain at the forefront of pedagogical innovation and scholarly pursuits. By investing in faculty development programs, we empower our educators to inspire, challenge, and mentor our students effectively.

The mapping of Course Outcomes (Co-Pos) to Program Outcomes (Po-Pos) is instrumental in assessing the effectiveness of our curriculum in meeting our educational objectives. Through meticulous Co-Po mapping, we can identify areas of strength and areas for improvement, thereby enhancing the quality and relevance of our academic programs.

Furthermore, the formulation of a comprehensive academic calendar lays the foundation for seamless academic operations and provides clarity and structure to our students and faculty alike. It serves as a roadmap for academic activities, ensuring efficient utilization of time and resources.

Lastly, I would like to express my utmost satisfaction with the performance of our faculty in
