2. OPENING REMARK BY THE VICE-CHANCELLOR, CHAIRMAN IQAC

The vice chancellor welcome all the members and stated that as we convene for this IQAC meeting, I am deeply saddened by the profound impact of the devastating second wave of the Covid-19 pandemic on our nation. Our thoughts are with those who have suffered, and our hearts go out to the families who have lost loved ones during these challenging times. In response to the severity of this crisis, our University remains steadfast in following the guidelines issued by the UGC and the Government, which are crucial for safeguarding the health and well-being of our students, faculty, and staff. It is imperative that we continue to adhere strictly to these directives, ensuring the safety of our academic community while striving to maintain the integrity of our educational mission.

Despite the formidable challenges posed by the pandemic, I commend our faculty members for their unwavering dedication to our students' academic progress. Through the continuation of online classes, we have demonstrated resilience and adaptability in the face of adversity. I urge all faculty members to prioritize the seamless delivery of online education, leveraging innovative teaching methodologies to ensure that learning remains uninterrupted. Moreover, let us not forget the importance of supporting our students during these trying times. I encourage faculty members to extend their guidance and mentorship, providing emotional support and motivation to students as they navigate through these uncertain times. Together, let us remain united in our commitment to academic excellence and the well-being of our University community. By staying vigilant, compassionate, and steadfast in our efforts, we will emerge from this crisis stronger and more resilient than ever before.

3. CONFORMATION OF MINUTES OF LAST MEETING

With no additional remarks forthcoming, the minutes of the IQAC 20/4 meeting was validated and circulated.

4. PRESENTATION OF ACTION TAKEN REPORT BY DIRECTOR IQAC

The Director IQAC presented the action taken report of the previous meeting

5. PRESENTATION OF HOD ON IN CONTINUING ON LINE CLASSES AND EXTRA CLASSES FOR THE SLOW LEARNER

The Head of Department (HoD) of the respective departments outlined the current state of online classes and proposed plans for additional online sessions tailored to support slow learners. Online platforms offer a flexible and accessible avenue to extend education beyond traditional classroom settings. Utilizing multimedia tools and interactive resources enhances learning experiences, accommodating various learning styles effectively. Furthermore, organizing supplementary online classes aimed at addressing individual learning gaps fosters a nurturing environment for slow learners to excel. Collaborative efforts involving educators, parents, and students are essential to maximizing the efficacy of online and supplementary classes. Regular assessments and feedback mechanisms ensure ongoing refinement and personalized assistance. Ultimately, our dedication to inclusivity and innovative practices empowers every student to succeed academically in the digital era.

6. PROPOSAL BY HOD ON FORTHCOMING WEBINARS AND WORKSHOPS

The Heads of Departments shared details about upcoming webinars and workshops, specifically tailored for students. These events aim to enhance students' knowledge, skills, and overall development. By participating in these sessions, students can gain valuable insights and practical experience related to their academic pursuits.

7. ADVICE OF THE PRO CHANCELLOR ON THE COVID-19 SECOND WAVE AND PREPAREDNESS .

As the deadly second wave of COVID-19 continues to grip our communities, the Pro Chancellor extends vital advice to safeguard our well-being. With infections surging, it's imperative to prioritize precautionary measures. The Pro Chancellor underscores the importance of adhering strictly to public health guidelines, including wearing masks, practicing social distancing, and maintaining hand hygiene.

Emphasizing the gravity of the situation, the Pro Chancellor urges vigilance and responsible behavior from all members of the community. It's crucial to remain informed about the latest developments and adhere to guidelines issued by health authorities. Furthermore, the Pro Chancellor highlights the importance of vaccination in curbing the spread of the virus. Encouraging all eligible individuals to get vaccinated, they stress the role of vaccination in protecting oneself and others, thus contributing to collective immunity. In addition to physical health, the Pro Chancellor acknowledges the toll the pandemic may take on mental well-being. They advocate for reaching out for support when needed and fostering a supportive environment within the community. In conclusion, the Pro Chancellor's advice serves as a reminder of our shared responsibility in combating the pandemic. By staying informed, following guidelines, getting vaccinated, and supporting one another, we can navigate through these challenging times with resilience and solidarity.
