1.0 OPENING REMARK BY THE VICE-CHANCELLOR, CHAIRMAN IQAC

I extend a warm welcome to each one of you to this pivotal meeting focused on the status of our curriculum progress, examination preparedness, and significant milestones in our pursuit of excellence. Today, we delve into crucial areas including the self-study report for accreditation of Faculty of Agriculture science and Technology programmes under ICAR, New Delhi, shedding light on the advancements within the Faculty of Agriculture Science and Technology. Additionally, we will reflect on the recent workshop on Intellectual Property Rights organized by the Computer Science Department, emphasizing the importance of innovation and protection of our intellectual assets. Furthermore, we'll discuss the accreditation journey of the Testing and Calibration Laboratory of the Cement Technology Department under NABL, a testament to our commitment to quality assurance and standards. Let us engage in fruitful discussions, harnessing our collective wisdom to propel our institution towards greater heights of academic prowess and institutional excellence.

2.0 CONFORMATION OF MINUTES OF LAST MEETING : With no further comments received, the minutes of the 22/3 IQAC meeting were approved and distributed. Subsequently, the floor was opened for discussion.
